

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

TEMPORARY PREFACE.

In publishing a limited number of this paper by subscription, instead of seeing it placed in the hands of every member of the Norfolk and Norwich Archaeological Society, as I hoped it would be, I do so with great reluctance, but with a clear conscience.

The MS. was offered by me as a gift to the Society, and refused by its managers, on the grounds that the first 32 pages of its 133 were an analysis of the much more extended version I compiled for its members, which after many years' weary waiting was completed in 181, and which is now extremely scarce and dear.

The obvious advantage of having a more analysis of the whole of the Norfolk Fines, eventually to be covered by one index, seems to have escaped the managers of the Society.

I need hardly say that the issue of the paper, though every copy subscribed for or appropriated, leaves me a heavy loser. Whether it is fair to force a private individual, who, during the last eleven years has printed, at his own expense, nearly thrice as much as the Society, to make this loss, while the Society has long had a large unused balance at its back, I will leave to my readers; but I will undertake to say no other Antiquarian Society in England would do so. What earthly use it does anybody to amass a large and increasing sum of money, it is hard to say.

I was asked by the Hon. Sec. to allow the Society to print the very valuable Freeman's Roll of Norwich, from the transcript in my possession; but on my instantly and cheerfully assenting and offering to undertake the laborious work of indexing it, I was told it would be "too expensive," and a polite wish expressed that I might print it at my own expense! Very likely I shall be fool enough to do so next year, so there is method in this madness; but is it fair? What, however, can be expected of a Committee, which numbers among it a clergyman who actually refused the "Society for the Preservation of Memorials of the Dead" permission to copy the inscriptions in his Church!

For the great number of the following errata I must especially express my regret. I am not altogether without excuse, for while Henry III. and the best part of Edward I. were passing through the press, I was down with typhoid fever; and when one is down with that, and is suffering inconsistent hallucinations that one is Governor of Norwich Castle seventy years ago, and that one has pressgangs and fugitive French prisoners under one's bed, one is hardly in the right mind to correct proofs. Somebody corrected them, but not too well; and all I have been able to do since I have (I hope) returned to memory and understanding, is to note up and correct some of the worst. Luckily, some of them are so bad that I don't think my severest critic will think me personally guilty of them, and will acquit me of "sepula" for "sequela (sequela)," "cyngnets" for "cygnets," "permission" for "percussum," and "nee" for "nec."

On the other hand, the reader must not too hastily suppose that all the strange place-names in the text are not correctly transcribed, e.g., pp. 28 and 35, Bodokesham is clearly so written, though I have little doubt it is Rodokesham, an old form of Wroxham; p. 32, Wetheringsett is obviously a transcribed error for Letheringsett; p. 37, Kermingeham for Berningham; p. 39, Dikling for Hickling; p. 114, Leyham for Lexham; p. 138, Wermyngham for Bernyngham; p. 63, Mogheton for Hogheton; p. 114, Northwand for North waud. Again, I shrewdly suspect Luddelawe, p. 73, to be our Norfolk Luddehame in disguise.

END OF PART I.

I PROPOSE to print a somewhat long preface to this work when the last part is issued, and therefore refrain from any remarks on the subjects touched on by the Fines analyzed in this Part.

A few references, however, may be useful in the meanwhile. It is especially noteworthy that many of these early Fines do not refer to real property, though it is usually laid down that Fines related to this only. Among other examples may be cited those on p. 31, of remission of a debt; on pp. 54, 65, 71, 81 (2), 85, 90, 108, 165, 172, of the freedom of villeins;* on pp. 53 (2), 54, 60, 61, 62 (2), 63, 96, 100, 129, 132, and 139, of remissions of services; on p. 79 of an admission to the benefits of a Priory; and on pp. 64, 74, 78, 81, 84, 88, 94, and 95, of rent and arrears of rent.

Again, on p. 55, we find a fine levied to settle a dispute. The "custody of 40 acres" occurs at p. 85, the custody of an heir at pp. 64 and 136, and the custody and marriage of another at p. 92.

Grants of fisheries are especially interesting, now that every riparian owner is trying to shut out anglers, and will be found at pp. 57, 60, 63, 64, 69, 75, and 120; grants of a watercourse at p. 71, and of markets at pp. 72 and 75. "Duels" are mentioned at pp. 61, 75, 76, and 133, and a plaintiff-guardian at p. 160; a herring rent at p. 132, and the Statute of Mortmain at p. 131. Of strange names there are many, e.g., Fiz le Prestre and Fiz la persone at p. 74; but these must stand over for the present.

* As to lords interposing in fines, because the grantors were their villeins, see pp. 66 and 68.

Price 10s. (pub. at 5s.), 401 pp. Only 150 Copies printed.
